7 Aussie Umpires Appointed to WBSC World Events

Softball Australia is pleased to announce the Australian Umpires selected for international tournaments by the WBSC.

Seven umpires from Down Under will take charge of diamonds across the world at a number of World Cups, World Championships and Olympic Qualifiers.

Scott Rindfleish will umpire at both the Men's World Softball Championship in Prague as well as the Asia/Oceania Softball Olympic Qualifier in Shanghai.

Jesse Smith, Damien McCauley, Kyira Cox, Amanda Houison, Leigh Evans and James English will all take the diamond in either an Olympic Qualifier or international tournament with the appointments outlined below.

Congratulations to all umpires!!! Read the full article here.
